

Stretching toward the love of Christ

November 17, 2019

How have you experienced God's love reaching into your life?

I experience it every day in small and big ways. Very specifically, I see it a lot where I work because the number of volunteers who help us put on our programming at ArtsQuest throughout the year. They are all ages, all ethnicities, all income levels, all backgrounds and when I see them pulling together and teaching one another (including teaching me on a regular basis), I see just how perfect of a world this can be which is an important reminder, especially with today's troubles.

How do you see yourself and our community of faith reaching out in love to others, community, etc?

The Nativity community is a welcoming one above all else. There is a home for everyone, regardless of where they are in their life or in their journey of faith. This community is a daily reminder to me to serve, be humble, and above all, always love one another.
